During the Commonwealth period marriages were performed by a Civil Registrar (Register) after thrice publishing notice of the intention. The entries in the Register are in two parts, thus:

"The intention of marriage between X and Y was published in the Parish Church of High Littleton three separate Lord’s days, viz. the -- of -- and the -- of -- and the -- of --, according to the Act of Parliament in that behalf made.”

"The above named X and Y were married on the -- of -- 16--.”
